

I must oppose this action requested by the ARRL in part, if the novice/techplus cw portions of the band are not being used by the n/t class of operators then redistribute them to other classes, however if they aren't using their cw portions of the subbands now, then why would you grant them privileges for cw in the General frequency allocations? Leave the plan alone or have ARRL rethink it.